

Members of the community are asked to help report property maintenance issues that may affect the health, safety, and aesthetics of Covina. These reports are confidential. Before making a report, please ascertain the address of the property. Property with street addresses above 2999 are not within the City of Covina's jurisdiction. These are located in unincorporated areas of Los Angeles County.

When reporting a problem, please provide as much information as possible.

Click here to report a problem.